

AFRICAN NETWORK INFORMATION REGISTRATION SERVICE AGREEMENT

This REGISTRATION SERVICE AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is made by and between the African Network Information Centre Ltd. (“AFRINIC”), a not-for-profit organisation based in Mauritius and

(“The Applicant”)

1. Preamble

The Regional Internet Registries (RIRs) manage Internet number resources with a view to ensuring the transparent, economic, equitable and efficient access to these Internet resources.

- (a) AFRINIC, the African Network Information Centre, is the Regional Internet Registry for Africa and the Indian Ocean region and is:
- (i) the entity accredited by ICANN under the ICP-2 policy 2 (Resolution 05.25 of May 2005) to assign Internet number resources within the region;
 - (ii) requested to facilitate and maintain a meaningful bottom-up policy development process that allows the community at large to define policies and rules which would govern and regulate the allocation and assignment of number resources to its members; such policies are adopted in accordance with its Constitution;
 - (iii) bestowed with a non-profit making mandate;
 - (iv) a non-commercial entity;
 - (v) empowered to ensure equitable, economic and efficient assignment/allocation of number resources to its members according to adopted number resources management policies;
 - (vi) empowered to fulfill a stewardship role for those number resources allocated to it, for the use of the African Internet community as constituted by its members collectively;
 - (vii) responsible for the registration, administration and conservation of the number resources;
 - (viii) governed by a Board elected by the members at large in terms of the process laid down in its Constitution and its election process.
- (b) AFRINIC, in the light of the foregoing, reserves itself the right to amend this agreement partially or otherwise where it is so mandated by its Board after giving notice to its members.

Such amendment(s) where effected, will take effect after the lapse of 30 days following its/their posting on its website and to the members mailing list.

In the event of an express refusal to be bound by the amendment(s) delivery of “services” will be stopped forthwith.

- (c) Under this agreement:
- (i) “Services” may include, without limitation, an allocation/assignment or transfer of number resources, reverse name delegation of network blocks, maintenance of network records and administration of number resources;
 - (ii) “Number resources” are IP address space and Autonomous System Numbers (ASNs);
 - (iii) “Resource application” includes any application for allocation/assignment or transfer of number resources;
 - (iv) “Transfer” of number resources from a source to a recipient includes the source relinquishing its right to use the number resources, and the simultaneous or subsequent allocation or assignment of the number resources to the recipient;
 - (v) “Constitution” means the Constitution or Bylaws of AFRINIC Ltd.;
 - (vi) “Adopted policy” means a policy for the allocation, assignment, transfer, or other management of number resources, duly adopted in accordance with the Constitution, including any policy adopted during the term of this agreement.

Applicants acknowledge that the evaluation process of all resource applications is subject to:

- (a) AFRINIC's sole and exclusive discretion but in line with adopted policies.
- (b) Compliance with AFRINIC's Internal business process and policies.

The membership process should be completed within 60 days of the receipt of an application deemed complete by AFRINIC.

Notification of acceptance of an application will be effected in writing and the date of the start of the supply of service would therein be indicated.

Where after the lapse of 60 days after the submission of an application, no communication has been received by the applicant it is deemed that the application has been abandoned.

4. Conditions of service

(a) Where a member, receiving service under an existing agreement applies for a change or a variation of the type of such service which AFRINIC has been supplying to it, evaluation of such a "change request" will be effected in terms of the provisions of clause (2) of the present agreement.

(b) Cooperation:

- (i) An applicant receiving service under an agreement is at all times bound to provide to AFRINIC such information, assistance and cooperation as may be reasonably required by the latter in the provision of the service.
- (ii) Such request for information may also be made where AFRINIC is investigating (reviewing) the applicant's utilisation of the number resources already assigned to it.
- (iii) Failure by the applicant, to comply with a request made at above may:
 - (1) entail revocation or withholding of the service supplied by AFRINIC;
 - (2) be taken into account by AFRINIC in its evaluation for further and future assignment or allocation of number resources;
 - (3) lead to the closure of an LIR and termination of the agreement by AFRINIC.

(c) Applicant's use of the service

The Applicant hereby irrevocably:

- (i) Commits itself to using the services solely for the purpose for which it was requested.
- (ii) Commits itself to using the services in full and unreserved compliance with AFRINIC's policies and mandate:
 - (1) without knowingly infringing the rights and/or interests of other users of such services,
 - (2) within the limits of applicable laws and/or regulations of the jurisdiction in which it operates.

- (iii) Further acknowledges that AFRINIC may at its own discretion and for good cause and common Interest of the stability of the Internet, investigate or cause to be investigated, the Applicant's use of the services by the appropriate and competent authority(ies).
- (iv) Hereby binds itself to:
 - (1) notify AFRINIC whenever its circumstances so change that it is no longer in need of the Internet number resources supplied or being supplied to it under a Registration Service Agreement;
 - (2) surrender to AFRINIC within 15 days of the service of the notice at (iv)(1) above the Internet number resources supplied or being supplied to it under a Registration Service Agreement;
 - (3) update any data submitted to AFRINIC in the context of:
 - a. an application for a Registration Service Agreement or
 - b. the renewal of any Registration Service Agreementwhenever such data have been the subject of amendment, change or have become outdated.
- (d) AFRINIC will comply with all applicable data protection and privacy laws of the Republic of Mauritius in its handling of data and information submitted to it by the Applicant in furtherance of an application for services and use thereof.

5. Fees and payment

- (a) As a condition precedent to AFRINIC's provision of the Services, The Applicant shall pay all applicable fees in accordance with the schedule of fees (the "Fee schedule") as currently published on the website.
- (b) All fees paid by The Applicant to AFRINIC are non-refundable.
- (c) The Applicant shall pay AFRINIC all applicable fees as set forth in the Fee schedule, prior to AFRINIC providing The Applicant with its requested allocation/ assignment of number resources. The Applicant shall also pay the applicable renewal Membership fees, if any, as set forth in the Fee schedule, within thirty (30) days after AFRINIC has invoiced the Applicant on regular billing period as set in the Fee schedule. If, for any reason, The Applicant does not pay any applicable fee, AFRINIC shall have the right to: (1) revoke the number resources previously allocated and/or previously assigned, or (2) terminate this Agreement.
 - (i) AFRINIC will have the right from time to time to change the amount of the fees or institute new fees relating to the services but such changes will only take effect upon the renewal of the Services by The Applicant.
 - (ii) AFRINIC commits to publish fee schedule changes at least 30 days before its application.
 - (iii) AFRINIC shall apply a late penalty charge of a maximum of 15% of the applicable renewal membership fee in the event that such fee remains unpaid thirty (30) days after the invoice date.

6. Acknowledgements

The Applicant:

- (a) Acknowledges that it has read, understood and taken cognizance of all its terms and conditions and further binds itself to strictly and unreservedly comply therewith.
- (b) Having taken cognizance of the preamble of the present agreement, fully and unreservedly subscribe thereto with the clear understanding and acceptance of AFRINIC's critical role in the stability and the continued evolution of the Internet as agreed by its members and the community in terms of adopted policies.
- (c) Acknowledges that it will at all times use the services and number resources allocated or assigned to it in strict compliance with all adopted policies.
- (d) Acknowledges:
 - (i) that this agreement shall at all times be subjected to adopted policies;
 - (ii) that this agreement shall at all times be subjected to such global policies, adopted and to be adopted by all RIRs, which have first been approved by the AFRINIC Internet Community through its policy development process;
 - (iii) that it is bestowed with an exclusive right of use of those number resources within the ambit of the "need" which it has justified in its application and for no other purpose during the currency of the present agreement;
 - (iv) the number resources, the subject matter of the present agreement, are not property (real, personal or intellectual);
 - (v) that the transfer of number resources is strictly prohibited, except in the event of the Applicant becoming the subject of merger and/or acquisition proceedings, or where such transfer is effected in compliance with adopted policies;
 - (vi) that any request for transfer of number resources for the reason prescribed in sub clause (v) above must be accompanied by all relevant certified legal documents;
 - (vii) that in the event that it commits a breach in the use of number resources allocated or assigned to it, it shall:
 - (1) remedy the breach, following directions from AFRINIC, and/or
 - (2) return the affected number resources to AFRINIC.

For the removal of doubt, failure to take remedial action within a reasonable time will entitle AFRINIC to terminate this agreement.

7. Representations and warranties

The parties, each, represent and warrant that: it has full power and authority to enter into the present agreement and perform all the obligations listed down herein.

- (a) It shall perform its obligations in compliance with all legal provisions (regulations, directives, legislation) existing in the jurisdiction wherein it operates as well under the laws of the Republic of Mauritius which shall govern this agreement.
- (b) The present agreement constitutes a legal, valid and binding obligation on it and that same shall be enforced in accordance with its terms and conditions.

8. Bankruptcy

- (a) Where any party under the present agreement:
 - (i) initiates legal proceedings under any insolvency or bankruptcy law or

 - (iii) take any other actions which it may be advised.
- (d) Where the other party does not voluntarily agree to AFRINIC's intervention in those proceedings enumerated at 8(a)(i) to 8(a)(vi) above, AFRINIC shall apply to the competent Court for leave to intervene therein.

9. Indemnification

- (a) The Applicant shall indemnify, defend and hold AFRINIC and any of its agents (the indemnified parties) harmless against any damage, loss, cost or expense (including without limitation, attorneys' fees and costs) incurred in connection with any third-party claim, demand or action ("claim") brought or asserted against any of the indemnified parties:
 - (i) alleging facts or circumstances that would constitute a breach of any provision of this Agreement by The Applicant or
 - (ii) arising from, relating to, or connected with The Applicant's use of the Services.
- (b) If The Applicant is obliged to provide indemnification pursuant to this provision, AFRINIC may, in its sole discretion, intervene in the disposition of any claim at the Applicant's sole cost and expense.
- (c) Without limiting the foregoing, The Applicant may not, in so far as the matter relates to a claim under this clause, settle, compromise or in any other manner dispose of any claim without the consent of AFRINIC.

10. Limitation of liability

It is hereby recognised that AFRINIC shall provide the services applied for under the present agreement in terms of the “best effort” criterion and would consequently bear an obligation of means only. Consequently AFRINIC shall not be liable for:

- (a) any interruption in the supply of services;
- (b) any error, inaccuracies or defects occurring in the provision of services;
- (c) such services which do not meet the requirement of The Applicant;
- (d) such services provided but which do not meet the technical configuration of The Applicant’s operation;
- (e) any damage of whatever nature and magnitude caused to The Applicant or any third party.

Except where it is conclusively established that AFRINIC did not use the appropriate means for the supply of the services applied for in terms of the particulars supplied by The Applicant.

To all intents and purposes, AFRINIC’s and The Applicant’s liability will be the greater of the amount paid by The Applicant to AFRINIC during the six months immediately preceding the event giving rise to such liability or 100 USD.

11. Term

- (a) Except for first applications, all agreements shall be:
 - (i) of one calendar year duration starting from January 1st and ending in December 31st;
 - (ii) renewed subject to clause 11(c)(i) and 11(c)(ii).
- (b) First applications entered into between January and December shall:
 - (i) have a duration equivalent to the number of months running up to December of the same year;
 - (ii) be renewed on the January of the following year.
- (c) Where a member receiving service from AFRINIC, intends to renew the agreement it has with the latter, it shall give written notice to AFRINIC to that effect. The notice will be effective only if:
 - (i) it is given at least 45 days before the expiry date of the agreement which is still in currency;
 - (ii) it is accompanied by the relevant fees.
- (d) In the event that:
 - (i) no notice is received in terms of the conditions laid down at 11(c)(i) and 11(c)(ii) above and
 - (ii) the agreement has not been earlier terminated expressly in terms of the present agreement.

AFRINIC will cause the said agreement to be automatically renewed for an additional year on the terms and conditions prevailing or which would prevail for that additional year.

Termination by AFRINIC

- (iii) AFRINIC shall have the right to terminate this Agreement upon giving The Applicant written notice of its intention and inviting the latter to show cause why such action shall not be taken against it or to take remedial measures to cure any breach particularised in the said notice.
- (iv) The Applicant will have a period of 30 days during which it shall communicate the grounds on which it relies to prevent the termination of this agreement by AFRINIC.
- (v) Where AFRINIC's notice of termination is based on a breach of the present agreement committed by The Applicant, the latter shall provide evidence of the remedial action(s) taken to cure the breach.
- (vi) Where AFRINIC considers in its own discretion that the grounds put forward by The Applicant or the remedial actions taken are satisfactory the termination process will be stopped forthwith.

(e) Effect of termination

If this agreement is terminated or expires:

- (i) AFRINIC will immediately revoke the number resources and otherwise cease providing the services without incurring any liability whatsoever.
- (ii) The Applicant shall pay forthwith any outstanding fees it owes AFRINIC.
- (iii) Any membership right and benefits accruing to The Applicant in its capacity as member shall lapse immediately.
